A Big Damage Suit.

Iola Moore's administrator yesterday entered suit in the circuit court against the Wheeling and Citizens' street railway company, claiming $10,000 damages for the killing of Iola, a child, on Chapline street near Twenty-seventh, some time ago by an electric car.

Republican Meeting To-night.

All Republicans who desire the success of the party in the future in Wheeling and Ohio county and at the same time desire to enjoy themselves, should attend the meeting in Lutz's hall, on Market street, this evening, to organize a permanent Republican club. The rooms secured for its purposes are first class, and the organization ought to be a go from the start.

A Child Badly Hurt.

The nine-year-old daughter of Louis Helfer, of the South Side, met with an accident at the corner of Twenty-fifth and Chapline streets yesterday afternoon. She was crossing Chapline street when a sewing machine wagon came along, and before she had time to get out of the way was knocked down. She was taken into Coleman's drug store, where Dr. Stathers attended her. She was badly cut on the head and bruised.

The Would-Be Suicide.

The condition of George Williamson, who attempted suicide Monday night, continues favorable, and the physicians in attendance think if there is no unfavorable turn in his condition for three or four days he will pull through without any trouble. If, however, after the lung commences to heal there should be one or more hemorrhages, there would be no hope of his recovery. He is to be removed to the hospital, where he will be under the care of competent nurses.

A Brakeman's Narrow Escape.

Rich Fisher, a brakeman in the employ of the Baltimore & Ohio road, had a narrow escape from death yesterday morning. His train was going at about a twenty-mile clip, and was passing the Forty-third street crossing, when he attempted to jump off. Just as he was in the act of jumping the step gave way and threw the man to the ground on his head. He was taken to his home at 4316 Jacob street, and investigation showed that he had received two bad gashes on his head and was bruised all over his body, one leg receiving a bad wrench. It was a wonderful escape from death.

Annual Thanksgiving Sack-Gathering.

The Board of Lady Managers of the Children's Home is making arrangements for the usual donations of useful articles for orphaned and destitute children, and inasmuch as there is but one general appeal made during the year, it is hoped that the public will remember these motherless little ones with a very generous response, as has been the case in previous years. In arranging for their own Thanksgiving repasts and reunions people should not let the needy within the gates be forgotten. The sacks will be distributed and collected as usual. All should be generously filled.

Transfers Recorded.

Clerk Hook yesterday admitted to record transfers of real estate as follows:

November 14 by William A. Wilson and wife to Clark Hanes, for $70, a lot between Fifth and Sixth streets and Market street and Alley B.
November 14 by Jennie Green to F. W. Plummer, for $1, part of lot 168 in Orloff Zane's addition, on the Island.
November 7 by G. L. Cranmer, trustee, to Jennie Green, for $1, the same lot last described.
November 11 by the Greenwood cemetery to George K. Wheat, for $380, lots 29, 30, 31 and 32 in section L of that cemetery.

VERY SLIGHT CHANGES

In the Official Returns as a Result of the Formal Canvass.

MR. MOFFAT GAINS FIFTEEN VOTES

Owing to Mistakes in two Precincts, and O'Kane Pulls up two on Smith for the Same Reason—The Tedious Job Nearly Completed by the County Commissioners—One Item of Cost.

Yesterday morning the county commissioners began the official canvass of the returns of the election last Tuesday, and the entire forenoon session was consumed in examining the returns from Washington and Madison districts.

There was no development of interest except that in precinct 2 of Washington district it was found that the Democratic candidates for house of delegates had been credited on the certificates with but 84 votes, whereas they had actually received 86. This was a gain of two for O'Kane. In the same precinct Moffat was only credited with 93 votes, while in fact he received 98. Howard had received 89 and was credited with but 87. Zane had only 85 votes, while he was given 89 in the certificates.

How the commissioners and clerks made errors like these it was hard to even conjecture. In several precincts the totals were not carried out on the tally sheets.

At the afternoon session no differences were found until precinct No. 3 of Union district was reached, when a loose ballot, properly endorsed by the polling clerks, was found folded inside of the tally sheet. After some discussion this was placed in an envelope and sealed up, with an explanation on the back. Whether it had been voted, nothing on its exterior indicated.

In Union No. 3 the tally sheets showed that John A. Howard had received 120 votes for prosecuting attorney, while the certificates signed by the election commissioners gave him but 115. As the returns were made from the certificates, this was a gain of 5.

The canvass proceeded with little of interest until precinct 5 of Ritchie district was reached. Here it was found that Moffat's vote was returned at 79, whereas it ought to be 89, a gain for him of ten votes.

This, with Moffat's other gain of five, reduces Franzheim's majority in the county from 105 to 90.

When the canvass of Ritchie district was completed the board adjourned till 10 a. m. to-day. The three county districts remain to go over, and after that the election commissioners will be examined as to the discrepancies found in the ballots.

The expenses of the election officers, at $3.50 a day each, including meals, were figured up yesterday. The total cost in the county for this one item alone foots up a total of $1,053. In Madison district the expense was $150.50 and in Webster $156. The lowest was Richland, $39.

COL. KEMPLE HOME.

He is Sorry for the Forty-nine Democrats Who Won't Get His Place.

Col. Jake Kemple, who holds the office of inspector in the emigration bureau of the treasury department with headquarters at New York, arrived in town yesterday from Washington, being called here by the delicate state of his father's health. He will return to his post in two weeks.

An INTELLIGENCER reporter had an interesting talk with the colonel, whose reputation as a good talker is well known.

Commenting on the results of the late election, Col. Kemple, who was on the stump in New York, New Jersey and Connecticut, takes a bright view of the situation. He said among other things: "As we were defeated, I am glad it was done so handsomely. I have no apology to make for my part and desire no sympathy, having given my best efforts, and am resigned to the verdict of the nation. I am, however, as fully imbued with the honesty and the justice of the principles of Republicanism as ever in my life, and have no fault whatever to find with the management of the campaign by Chairman Carter and his associates of the national committee. Everyone worked hard and conscientiously and in unity. The fact that we were beaten is sufficient without philosophizing on the causes of the landslide.

"I am heartily glad, since we are beaten, that the Democratic party will enjoy the full fruits of its victory. The nation will hold it responsible for the legislation of the next four years, and if that party can convince the country of its fitness for power and ability, its lease of power will be unlimited."

"How about your office under the Harrison administration?"

"I will probably send in my resignation soon after the confirmation of the new Secretary of the Treasury. Since I arrived here over fifty Democrats have been inquiring of me about the salary and duties of my position. As there is but the one position, I feel sorry for the forty-nine unsuccessful applicants who will have to tramp it from Washington to Wheeling on their uppers."

In Olden Times

people overlooked the importance of permanently beneficial effects and were satisfied with transient action, but now that it is generally known that Syrup of Figs will permanently cure habitual constipation, well informed people will not buy other laxatives, which act for a time, but finally injure the system.

Worked Wonders.

Such a boom as our business has had this fall. Study our stock in each department and you will find a reason for it. It is not our LOW PRICES ALONE, nor our SUPERIOR QUALITIES, nor our IMMENSE VARIETY, nor our EXCLUSIVE STYLES, but the GRAND, GLORIOUS UNION OF ALL THESE VIRTUES, and the real satisfaction with our RESPONSIBLE GUARANTEE.

We have searched the market over, gathering the Choicest Novelties that were growing in the Garden of Genius. Our house is full of Flowers of Fashion and we're strewing them among an applauding public.

SUITS.

Straight as a thread through the eye of a needle we have entered into every phase of fashion. When you make a change with us this fall it will be for the better. We have shaved the prices until only a tissue of profit covers the cost. Our line of cheapness has been drawn at $5, worth weighs light below that price, up to $35. Quality grows with every dollar. There is the highest perfection. Judge us as you find us. The Single and Double-Breasted Sacks, Three and Four Button Cutaway Frocks, Cheviots, Worsteds, Tweeds, Homespuns, Meltons, etc., give us a variety that no three houses combined can equal. Don't fear of the fit, that is perfect, beyond improvement. Our aim has been to give you the biggest money's worth you have ever had, and we have succeeded. Success piles up success.

OVERCOATS.

Only the rich can afford to have an overcoat made to order, and they don't need to. The skill of such famous houses as Strauss Bros., Hamerslough, Saks & Co., the F. B. Q. Clothing Co., have won a place among the best efforts of custom tailors. Price is their only resemblance to the regular readymade garments shown you by everybody else. The more you see others the stronger will be your appreciation of ours. 'Tisn't strange, we want you to look around, no style, or size or taste we have forgotten. We have them in Kerseys, Meltons, Homespuns, Worsteds, Beavers, Chinchillas, etc., etc. Whether you are tall, short, slim or stout, it matters not, we can fit, and fit you perfectly, both fall and winter weights.
